Policy Statement

To be selected to a Provincial Team is an honour and a privilege that comes with the important responsibility to proudly represent the Ontario Skeet Shooting Association at Provincial, National and International competitions.

To ensure a transparent selection process, specific eligibility and selection criteria are to be used in all of the Ontario Provincial programs. This will ensure that the identification and selection of athletes drives the development of high performance skeet shooting in Ontario with the ultimate goal of transitioning Provincial Team athletes into National Team athletes.

The Ontario Skeet Shooting Association's Board of Directors' criteria in the selection of their teams, including Head Coach, Official(s) and Manager.
